Tennessee Stock Horse Association Member Release

The undersigned individual(s) and any signing parent or guardian hereby (1) agrees to release The Tennessee Stock Horse Association, the management and/or organizer(s) of any event, its officers, directors, employees, or agents, and the owners or managers of the grounds where any event is held, from any loss, damage, liability or injury or death to person or property sustained by participant arising out of or resulting from any event or individual's participation or entry therein and (2) acknowledges that activities with and around horses involve inherent risks which are understood by the persons signing and are expressly assumed. I, the undersigned or signing parent or guardian, understand that some of the risks involved with participating might include, but are not limited to, falling off horse, being stepped on, getting kicked, and/or accidents and injuries resulting from hazards from riding surfaces, the actions of other animals involved in the competition, the condition of equipment or tack, and/or the inability to predict a horse's reaction to given conditions of event. The Participant assumes all risks and accepts responsibility for making any and all examinations and inspections relating to all risks and understands that The Tennessee Stock Horse Association, the property owners, agents and representatives have no responsibility to make such examination or inspections. In the event of injury to Participant or to Participant's animals, permission is hereby granted to management for emergency medical treatment.

"Under Tennessee law, an equine activity sponsor or equine professional is not liable for an injury to or the death of a participant in equine activities resulting from the inherent risks of equine activities, pursuant to the equine activities liability protection act."
